

Table of Contents

Foreword by Norman Amundson	xxv
Acknowledgements	xxvii
List of Contributors	xxix
Introduction	1

Section 1: The Development of the Profession

one

Historical Snapshots: The Emergence of Career Development in Canada	11
Marilyn Van Norman, Blythe C. Shepard, Priya S. Mani

two

Career Counselling in Québec: Its Evolution and Future Outlook	35
Louis Cournoyer

Section 2: Basic Conceptual Frameworks of Career Development Practice

three

Career Development: Key to Economic Development	55
Phil Jarvis

four

- Diversity and Social Justice: Guiding Concepts for Career Development Practice 77
Nancy Arthur, Sandra Collins

five

- Professional Ethics, Role, and the Whole Person 105
Geoffrey S. Peruniak

six

- Theoretical Foundations of Career Development 129
Roberta A. Neault

Section 3: The Nuts and Bolts of Career Development Practice

seven

- Developing Effective Client Relationships 153
Beverley Walters, Blythe C. Shepard, Priya S. Mani

eight

- Career Planning, Knowledge, and Skills 173
Kerri McKinnon, Kathleen Johnston

nine

- Work Search Strategies 199
Deirdre A. Pickerell

Section 4: Working With Diversity

ten

- Employment Counselling and Poverty: A View From the Frontline in British Columbia 225
Stephen Hill

eleven

- Immigrants in Canada: Context and Issues for Consideration 249
Lisa Bylsma, Sophie C. Yohani

twelve

- Refugees in Canada: From Persecution to Preparedness 275
Stephen J. Sutherland, Hany Ibrahim

thirteen

- Through an Aboriginal Lens: Exploring Career 297
Development and Planning in Canada
Natasha Caverley, Suzanne Stewart, Blythe C. Shepard

Section 5: Navigating Developmental Tasks and Pathways

fourteen

- Career Development for Students: Elementary to High School 333
Blythe C. Shepard, Priya S. Mani

fifteen

- The Practice of Postsecondary Career Development 361
Jennifer Browne, Lisa Russell

sixteen

- Lifelong Career Management 383
Sandra Boyd, Kim Spurgeon

Section 6: Specialties in the Profession

seventeen

- Assessment in Career Guidance 413
Jeffrey Landine, John Stewart

eighteen

- CareerCycles: A Holistic and Narrative Method of Practice 441
Mark Franklin

nineteen

- Community Capacity Building as a Model 465
for Career Development Planning
Scott Fisher, Waylon Greggain, Blythe C. Shepard

Section 7: New Directions and Emerging Trends in Career Development Practice

twenty

- The Power of Evidence: Demonstrating the Value of Career Development Services 489
Bryan Hiebert, Kris Magnusson

twenty-one

- The Professionalization of Career Development in Canada in the 21st Century 531
Lynne Bezanson, Sareena Hopkins, Elaine O'Reilly

twenty-two

- Emerging Trends: Canadian Perspectives on Career Development Practice in the 21st Century 555
Natasha Caverley, Seanna Quressette, Blythe C. Shepard, Priya S. Mani

Appendices

Appendix A

- Code of Ethics 579

Appendix B

- Professional Resources for Career Practitioners 589

Appendix C

- Primer on Aboriginal Peoples and Canadian Law 595

Analytical Table of Contents

Foreword by Norman Amundson	xxv
Acknowledgements	xxvii
List of Contributors	xxix
Introduction	1

Section 1: The Development of the Profession

one

Historical Snapshots: The Emergence of Career Development in Canada	11
Marilyn Van Norman, Blythe C. Shepard, Priya S. Mani
Introduction and Learning Objectives	11
Early Career Development	12
Emergence of Career Development (World War I and II)	15
Rise of Career Counselling (1950–1999)	17
Growth in Vocational Counselling	17
Associations for Counselling Professionals	19
National Conference on Career Development	20
New Tools and Programs	20
Federal Government Policies in the 1980s	20
Students and Youth	21
CAMCRY	21
Stay-in-School Program	22

Games and Online Tools	23
Federal Government in the 1990s	24
CERIC: A New Institute for Counselling	25
Professionalization and Development of Competencies	26
Career Practitioners in Canada	27
Conclusion	29
References	29
Glossary	31
Discussion and Activities	33
Resources and Readings	33

two

Career Counselling in Québec: Its Evolution and Future Outlook	35
Louis Courmoyer
Introduction and Learning Objectives	35
Québec Today	35
A Century of Vocational Counselling	36
1900–1920: Search for Suitability of Skills	36
1920–1940: The Embryonic Phase	37
1940–1960: Building the Foundations	37
1960–1970: Opening Up to New Experiences	39
1970–1980: Becoming Aware of Possibilities	40
1980–1990: Adapting to Change	41
1990–2000: Keeping Pace With Change	42
2000–2010: Participating in Change	43
Summary	44
Challenges to the Profession	45
The Challenge of Positioning	45
The Challenge of Definition	45
The Challenge of Self-Assertion: “Social-Relationship Marketing”	46
Conclusion	47
References	47
Glossary	50
Discussion and Activities	51

Section 2: Basic Conceptual Frameworks of Career Development Practice

three

Career Development: Key to Economic Development	55
Phil Jarvis
Introduction and Learning Objectives	55
Leaks in the Talent Pipeline	56
Economic Consequences of Inadequate Career Development	57
Productivity	57
Education	58
The One-Percent Difference: Health, Social Services, Protection, and Corrections	58
Impact of Demographic Trends	59
Impact of Labour Market Trends	61
A New Paradigm for Career Development	63
Competency Frameworks	65
Blueprint for Life/Work Designs	66
Conclusion	68
References	69
Glossary	71
Discussion and Activities	72
Resources and Readings	73

four

Diversity and Social Justice: Guiding Concepts for Career Development Practice	77
Nancy Arthur, Sandra Collins
Introduction and Learning Objectives	77
Vignette: Imagine	77
Overview	78
What Is Culture?	79
The Meaning of Culture	79
The Meaning of Cultural Diversity	80
The Meaning of Cultural Identity	80
The Canadian Context	81
Inuit, Métis, and First Nations Peoples	81
Immigrants and Refugees	82
Religious Diversity	83

Sexual Orientation	83
Ability	83
Socioeconomic Status and Social Class	84
Implications of Diverse Cultural Identities	84
Culture and Career Development	85
The Meaning of Career and Career Development	85
Use of Career Development Resources and Services	86
Perceived Availability of Career Development Resources and Services	86
Relevance and Appropriateness of Career Theories and Models	87
Moving Past Awareness to Action	87
Linking Culture and Social Justice	89
Relationship Between Culture and Social Justice	89
Defining Social Justice	90
Practitioner Views of Social Justice	90
Implications for Career Development	91
Summary and Conclusion	92
References	92
Glossary	95
Discussion and Activities	98
Resources and Readings	102

five

Professional Ethics, Role, and the Whole Person	105
Geoffrey S. Peruniak
Introduction and Learning Objectives	105
Case 1: Moral Issues	106
General Concepts	107
Towards an Ideal Self-Reflective Practitioner	108
The Profession	109
The Resolution of Moral Questions	110
Self-Improvement, Awareness, and Development	114
Case 2: Professional Development	116
Building a Local Professional Development Network	116
Virtue-Based Ethical Decision-Making Approach: Application to Case 2	119
Conclusion: Implications and Further Considerations for Career Practitioners	120
References	122

Glossary	124
Discussion and Activities	125
Resources and Readings	127

six

Theoretical Foundations of Career Development	129
Roberta A. Neault
Introduction and Learning Objectives	129
Overview	130
Introduction to Career Counselling Theories and Models	130
Career Matching Theories	131
Career Development Theories	134
Theories and Models for Career Responsiveness	136
Cultural Complexity	136
Change and Transition	137
Collaborative Meaning-Making	138
Systemic Influences on Career Development	139
Career Development at Work	142
Quality of Life	143
Summary	144
References	144
Glossary	147
Discussion and Activities	148
Resources and Readings	149

Section 3: The Nuts and Bolts of Career Development Practice

seven

Developing Effective Client Relationships	153
Beverley Walters, Blythe C. Shepard, Priya S. Mani
Introduction and Learning Objectives	153
Competencies Required	154
The Foundation of the Client-Practitioner Relationship	155
The Client-Practitioner Relationship in Action	157
Meeting the Client's Three Primary Needs	157
Relationship Building Blocks	158
Stumbling Blocks to Active Listening	160
Working With Difficult Clients	165
Conclusion	166

References	167
Glossary	168
Discussion and Activities	169
Resources and Readings	171

eight

Career Planning, Knowledge, and Skills	173
Kerri McKimmon, Kathleen Johnston
Introduction and Learning Objectives	173
Career Planning	174
What Is Career Planning?	175
Career-Planning Models	176
Components of Career Planning	177
1. Self-Discovery	177
2. Occupational Information	179
3. Decision Making, Goal Setting, and Action Plans	183
4. Job Search Skills	186
5. Action Plans	186
6. Career Management Skills	187
The Professional Career Practitioner	190
Professional Networking	190
Community Networking	191
Summary	192
References	193
Glossary	193
Discussion and Activities	194
Resources and Readings	196

nine

Work Search Strategies	199
Deirdre A. Pickerell
Introduction and Learning Objectives	199
Ten Components of Work Search Strategies	200
1. Exploring Opportunities	200
2. Gaining Relevant Experience	201
3. Identifying Skills and Values	202
4. Creating a Portfolio	204
5. Identifying Job Leads	205
6. Creating a Master Application Form	207

7. Developing Effective Résumés	208
8. Writing Cover Letters	209
9. Preparing for Interviews	211
10. Understanding Negotiation Strategies	212
Summary	213
References	214
Glossary	214
Discussion and Activities	215
Resources and Readings	218

Section 4: Working With Diversity

ten

Employment Counselling and Poverty: A View From the Frontline in British Columbia Stephen Hill	225
Introduction and Learning Objectives	225
Poverty and Unemployment, Unemployment and Poverty	226
What Is Poverty?	227
Coming to Terms With Poverty	228
Categories of Poverty	230
Surviving (on) Welfare	231
The Cycle of Punishment and Reward: To Encourage the Others	232
Tales From the Frontline	233
Where to Start?	233
Ignoring the “Hierarchy of Needs”	234
Tips for Employment Counselling	235
A Poverty of Ideas?	238
Mincom	238
The Equality Trust	239
Small Is Beautiful	239
Summary	240
References	241
Glossary	243
Discussion and Activities	244
Resources and Readings	247

eleven

Immigrants in Canada: Context and Issues for Consideration	249
Lisa Bylisma, Sophie C. Yohani
Introduction and Learning Objectives	249
History of Canada's Immigration System	250
Characteristics of Immigrants to Canada	251
Temporary Residence: Objectives and Classes	251
Permanent Residence: Classes	253
Distribution of Classes	254
Settlement Location	255
Age, Gender, and Religion	255
Education	256
Migrant Personality	256
Challenges Immigrants Face That Affect Career and Employment	257
Phases of Settlement	257
Acculturation and Adaptation	257
Language Issues	258
Points System and the Provincial Nomination System	259
Foreign Qualifications Recognition	259
Employment Experiences: A Question of Social Justice	260
Expectations Meet Reality	262
Racism and Discrimination	263
Feelings of Loss	264
Physical and Mental Health	264
Gender Issues	265
Summary	265
References	266
Glossary	269
Discussion and Activities	271
Resources and Readings	273

twelve

Refugees in Canada: From Persecution to Preparedness	275
Stephen J. Sutherland, Hany Ibrahim
Introduction and Learning Objectives	275
The Canadian Refugee System	276
Types of Refugees	278
Sponsored Refugees	278
Refugee Claimants	279

Human Smuggling	279
Mental Health and Addictions Among the Refugee Population	281
Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD)	282
Depression	283
Addictions	284
General Observations	284
How Career Practitioners Can Approach Mental Health Issues	285
Ethno-Cultural Division and Ongoing Persecution	286
Conclusion	288
References	288
Glossary	291
Discussion and Activities	293
Resources and Readings	295

thirteen

Through an Aboriginal Lens: Exploring Career Development and Planning in Canada Natasha Caverley, Suzanne Stewart, Blythe C. Shepard	297
Introduction	297
The Cultural Context: Aboriginal Identities, Values, and Ways of Knowing	299
Defining the Aboriginal Population	299
Honouring Aboriginal Cultures and Values	300
Aboriginal Engagement in Economic and Career Development	300
Aboriginal Identities	301
Cultural Values	301
Societal and Organizational Challenges: Current Barriers to Career Development	303
Unemployment and Labour Force Representation	303
Socioeconomic Hardships	304
Cultural Losses	305
Education	305
Organizational Development	306
Cross-Cultural Relations	307
Funding	308
Career Development Approaches and Supports	308
Guiding Circles	309
Social Networking and Liaising	310
Job Autobiography	311
Possible Selves	311

Life Mapping	311
Dependable Strengths	312
Aboriginal Youth (25 Years of Age and Younger)	312
Educational Achievement	312
Modeling and Mentoring	313
Work Experience Programs	314
Aboriginal Women	315
Aboriginal Adults and Urban Aboriginal People	316
First Nations People on Reserve	317
Community-Owned Businesses	317
Small Business Entrepreneurs	318
Implications for Career Practitioners, Employers, and Educators	319
For Career Practitioners	320
For Educators	320
For Employers	321
Conclusion	321
References	322
Glossary	326
Discussion and Activities	328
Resources	330

Section 5: Navigating Developmental Tasks and Pathways

fourteen

Career Development for Students: Elementary to High School	333
Blythe C. Shepard, Priya S. Mani
Introduction and Learning Objectives	333
Career Development Theory and Design	334
Theorists	335
Three Stages	336
Blueprint for Life/Work Designs	337
Career Education in Elementary School Years	339
Career Education in Middle School	340
Career Education in High School	341
Disadvantaged Students	349
Community Engagement	350
Conclusion	351
References	351
Glossary	355

Discussion and Activities	356
Resources and Readings	358

fifteen

The Practice of Postsecondary Career Development	361
Jennifer Browne, Lisa Russell
Introduction and Learning Objectives	361
Theories That Have Shaped Career Development	362
Career Services Checklist and Opportunities	364
Types of Career Services	364
School-to-Work Transition	366
Certification, Education, and a Day in the Life	366
Special Populations	368
Students With Disabilities	368
International Students	369
Aboriginal Students	370
LGBTQ Students	371
Trends and Challenges	372
Certification and Professionalization	372
Integrated Approach to Learning	373
Measuring Outcomes	374
Conclusion	375
References	375
Glossary	377
Discussion and Activities	378
Resources and Readings	380

sixteen

Lifelong Career Management	383
Sandra Boyd, Kim Spurgeon
Introduction and Learning Objectives	383
Values and Beliefs About Work	384
Careers — Then	385
Defining Your Success	386
Careers — Now	387
Career Fluidity	387
Three-Way Partnership (Knightsbridge Model)	388
Five Steps to Managing Your Career	390
Step 1: Gain Insight	391

Step 2: Express Your Value Proposition	393
Step 3: Develop Your Brand	396
Step 4: Build Your Network	399
Step 5: Share Goals	403
Summary	405
References	406
Glossary	406
Discussion and Activities	407
Resources and Readings	409

Section 6: Specialties in the Profession

seventeen

Assessment in Career Guidance Jeffrey Landine, John Stewart	413
Introduction and Learning Objectives	413
Ethical Principles and Assessment Practice	414
Selecting and Administering a Good Test	415
Are You Qualified?	416
Selecting Assessment Instruments	416
Types of Formal Assessment Instruments	419
Assessing Interests	420
Assessing Personality Traits	421
Assessing Values	422
Aptitudes and Abilities	423
Assessing Career Choice Problems	425
Computer-Based Assessments	426
Informal Assessment Methods	428
Genograms	428
Mind Mapping	429
Pattern Identification Exercises	429
Behavioural Observation Checklists	429
Projective Techniques	431
Audiovisual Feedback	431
Conclusion	431
References	431
Glossary	434
Discussion and Activities	436

Resources and Readings	438
------------------------	-----

eighteen

CareerCycles: A Holistic and Narrative Method of Practice Mark Franklin	441
Introduction and Learning Objectives	441
CareerCycles (CC) Method of Practice	444
The Case of Charlotte	444
Career and Life Clarification Process	444
Charlotte's Career and Life Clarification Process	446
Intentional Exploration Process	448
Charlotte's Intentional Exploration Process	450
Key Concepts for Career Practitioners Using the CC Method of Practice	451
Working With the Definition of Career	451
Incorporating Assessments into the CC Method Sessions and Termination	452
Client Populations Successfully Served Using the CC Method	453
Alignment With the Standards and Guidelines	454
Five-Step Summary of the CareerCycles Method of Practice	454
Outcome Study: Results of CareerCycles Method of Practice	455
Summary	456
References	456
Discussion and Activities	457
Readings	462

nineteen

Community Capacity Building as a Model for Career Development Planning Scott Fisher, Waylon Greggain, Blythe C. Shepard	465
Introduction and Learning Objectives	465
What Is Community Capacity Building and Why Is It Important? The Needs-Based Approach	466
The Community Capacity Building (CCB) Approach	467
What Are the Assets of the Community? Individual Capacities and Resources	468
Capacities of Associations, Organizations, and Institutions	469
How to Build Community Capacity	470
Step 1: Map Assets	471

Step 2: Develop a Vision and a Plan	473
Step 3: Leverage Outside Resources to Support Local Development	474
Step 4: Evaluate	474
Using the CCB Framework for Career Development	475
CCB — A Canadian Perspective	475
Promoting Community Partnership to Increase Self-Sufficiency and Productivity	476
Working With the Community to Develop a Vision	476
Working With the Community to Assess and Implement Action Plans	477
Ethical Implications and Limitations	478
Conclusion	480
References	480
Glossary	482
Discussion and Activities	483
Resources and Readings	485

Section 7: New Directions and Emerging Trends in Career Development Practice

twenty

The Power of Evidence: Demonstrating the Value of Career Development Services Bryan Hiebert, Kris Magnusson	489
Introduction and Learning Objectives	489
Need for Evaluation	491
Conceptual Framework	492
Evaluation Practices	493
Integrating Evaluation and Intervention	497
Tools and Resources	499
Evaluation as a Decision-Making Process	499
Retrospective Assessment	501
Taking the Next Step: Integrating Evaluation Into Practice	503
Stage 1: Understanding Service Foundations and Client Context	503
Stage 2: Describing Desired Outcomes	506
Stage 3: Describing Core Activities	509
Stage 4: Selecting Measures and Scales	509
Stage 5: Collecting Evidence	512
Stage 6: Working With the Data	513

Stage 7: Reporting Results and Marketing Your Services	513
Conclusion	515
References	517
Glossary	519
Discussion and Activity	520
Appendices: Sample Forms, Analysis, and Reports	521

twenty-one

The Professionalization of Career Development in Canada in the 21st Century Lynne Bezanson, Sareena Hopkins, Elaine O'Reilly	531
Introduction and Learning Objectives	531
Transformation From the Outside-In	533
An Expanding Scope of Practice	533
The Connection Between Policy and Practice	535
The Necessity for an Evidence-Based Practice	540
Transformation From the Inside-Out	542
The Canadian Standards and Guidelines for Career Development Practitioners (S&Gs) and the Movement Towards Certification	542
Professional Membership and Professional Development	543
The Professional Career Development Roadmap	545
Conclusion	547
References	547
Glossary	549
Discussion and Activities	551
Resources and Readings	553

twenty-two

Emerging Trends: Canadian Perspectives on Career Development Practice in the 21st Century Natasha Caverley, Seanna Quressette, Blythe C. Shepard, Priya S. Mani	555
Introduction and Learning Objectives	555
Overview of the Chapter	556
Developing Inclusive, Contextually Sensitive, Theoretical Models	557
Responding to the Continuously Changing World of Work	559

Assisting Clients to Develop the Skills and Knowledge to Effectively Manage Their Careers	561
Achieving Outcomes That Are Socially Just	562
Bridging Two Worlds: Aboriginal Career Development	563
Celebrating Cultural Diversity: Immigrants to Canada	563
Career Development for Individuals of Low Socioeconomic Status	564
Shifting Landscape for Employment Services	565
Perspectives on the Client	566
Professional Identity	567
From Social Agency to Business Service	568
Financing Employment Services	569
Conclusion	571
References	572
Glossary	573
Discussion and Activities	574

Appendices

Appendix A

Code of Ethics	579
----------------	-----

Appendix B

Professional Resources for Career Practitioners	589
---	-----

Appendix C

Primer on Aboriginal Peoples and Canadian Law	595
---	-----