Literature Search

Career Development Challenges Facing Immigrants

Updated November 2016

Conference Board of Canada. (2012). Immigration knowledge area. Conference Board of Canada

Dean, J.A., & Wilson, K., (2009). ‘Education? It is irrelevant to my job now. It makes me very depressed...’ Exploring the health impacts of under/unemployment among highly skilled recent immigrants in Canada. Ethnicity & Health, 14, 185-204.

Houle, R., & Yssaad, L., (September 2010). Recognition of newcomers’ foreign credentials and work experience. Perspectives, 11(9)

HRSDC. (2008d). Immigrant Social and/or Economic Integration Program Inventory. Ottawa: Human Resources and Skills Development Canada.

Keung, N. (2016). Gloomier future seen for Canadian immigration. Toronto Star

Knights, C., Kizilbash, Z. 2010 Summary: Issues, Challenges and Barriers Faced by Immigrant and Culturally Diverse Artists in Toronto and Scarborough, Creative Mosaics.

Martiny, C. (2009). How job seeking immigrants have influenced employability practices in Québéc, Annual Canadian Counselling Association (CCA) Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, May 21-4

Sakamoto, I. “Do you have Canadian experience?” Mennonite New Life, Summer 2012, Volume 4, Issue 1.

Schellenberg, G.H. (2007). Immigrants’ perspectives on their first four years in Canada: Highlights from three waves of the longitudinal survey of immigrants to Canada. Canadian Social Trends, 2.

Tastsoglou, E., Preston, V. Gender, Immigration and Labour Market Integration: Where We Are and What We Still Need to Know. Atlantis 30.1 (2005).

